LOCAL BRIEFS.

Sunday school, has organized a Future Min club that meets in the annex of the church each Friday evening. The organization is proving a success, the attendance is large and the boys have a good time playing games, reading, business matters and debates. All meetings are conducted by the boys according to parliamentary rules. The idea is to give the boys a good time and at the same time keep them off the streets after night LABOR LEADER HERE.-Secretary

Peters is foreman of a bridge gang working in the vicinity of Sait Lake on the Denver & Rio Grande. Hutchinson and Clark are working for him. At 7 belock last night the men returned from work to find that the car in which they were making headquarters in the railroad bards had been broken into. Peters had lost a gold watch and chain and some elothing. Hutchinson found a fancy vest gone and both he and Clark lost razors, revolvers and clothing. The theft was reported at once to police headquarters by Hutchinson and Clark.

The men were then on their way to the heatre where they had arranged to see Nattie the Newsgirl' bring villains to heir knees and restore the righteous to helr own.

The stuff he stole would have filled a wheelbarrow, but he managed to get it all uptown. Here he pawned the guns and razors. The watch and fancy vest appealed so strongly to him that he could not resist the temptation to wear them. It was the same way with the pin. Within an hour all the property not on the man

Did He Rob John T. Bodell?

Joon being searched at the station to mas was found to have a knife on his rson which had evidently been made "John T. Bodell, Harriman, Utah," as it bore this inscription beneath a glass handle. On the reverse of the knife, which is two-bladed, is a picture of a woman in riding costume, and a trotting horse and sulky.

This leads the authorities to believe that Thomas may have been operating in this vicinity for the past few months, although none of the officers has seen the man about fown. the man about town
